COELACANTH

The coelacanth is a large primitive fish which until its discovery in 1938 was believed to be extinct for 70 million years. The coelacanth was discovered off the coast of Madagascar on December 20, 1952 by some fishermen. The fish was found 150 feet under water. This was very odd because the coelacanth usually lives more than a thousand feet under water. Malagasy fishermen call it "kombessa" and find its flesh appetizing when salted and dried. The adult weight is 120lbs. Its length is approximately 5ft. Its fins look like a cross between a normal fin and a walking limb.

AARDVARKS

The Aardvark is a rather large animal with a long face. It can weigh 140 pounds! The average size of an aardvark is around 2 feet high and 5 ½ feet long. It is similar to the anteater but feeds on termites instead of ants. Aardvarks are nocturnal, meaning they go out during the night and sleep during the day. Aardvarks live in Africa.

Editor's NOTEBOOK

Dear Archie Readers, HAIRDOS! HAIRDOS!...and more HAIRDOS!

That was the focus of BETTY & VERONICA #54 August. In that issue we presented Betty and Veronica with many different hair-styles. We also asked for some help from you, our great fans, to fill out a coupon expressing your opinion for "NEW DO'S" on these world famous teens. The response has been overwhelming, with thousands of coupons coming in each week. What are the results? You'll find them in BETTY & VERONICA #58 December, which goes on sale September 29, 1992. Don't miss it...and "THANKS" for your help.

Here are some new things to look for when you're shopping for comics on the way home from "ugh" school. THE WILD WEST C.O.W.-BOYS OF MOO MESA are riding your way in an exciting new comic book mini-series from the ARCHIE ADVENTURE SERIES. It centers around a group of Good Guy cows whose job it is to maintain law and order, protect the cow-folk and make Moo Mesa a safe place to live. This comic is not just for kids, adults will get a "BIG BOOT" out of it, too. Also, JUGHEAD #40 December has been given a "Facelift". He's the Jughead you've been asking for and wanted back...He's funny, witty, always hungry and of course, Archie's best friend and Reggie's worst nightmare.

Ever been embarrassed by your parents? Well, you're in good company. See what happens to Betty in BETTY #3 December.

That's all for this time until next time. Write your letters to:
